Accommodation Prices

As of October 1, 2024:

Our Refundable Accommodation Deposit ranges from $550k to $1,083k depending on the room type.

You can pay the room by one of the following 3 methods:

1. RAD: A full payment of the agreed RAD, ie Refundable Accommodation Deposit.
2. DAP: By a rental style daily payment called DAP, ie Daily Accommodation Payment. The interest rate is set by the government, and currently is 8.38% (Maximum Permissible Interest Rate).

$$\text{DAP} = (\text{Agreed RAD Amount} * \text{MPIR})/365$$

3. Combination Payment Method: Part of the Agreed RAD and the unpaid balance to be converted to a Daily Accommodation Payment.

$$\text{DAP} = (\text{Unpaid RAD Amount} * \text{MPIR})/365$$

The Maximum Permissible Interest Rate (MPIR) is decided by the government and currently is at 8.38%

When a part RAD/part DAP option is chosen, the resident may elect to have the DAP deducted from the RAD balance. Where this option is taken up the refundable amount of the RAD reduces over the length of the resident's stay.

Prospective residents and their families are encouraged to obtain individual financial advice on the best option for their accommodation payment.
